

MOWA Choctaw Friends Center

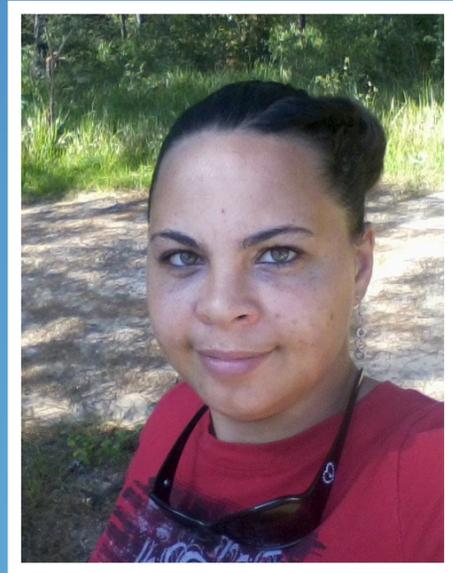

Meet the “TEAM”

These three outstanding women have been acting as Co-Directors of the MOWA Choctaw Friends Center in Alabama.

My name is Jennie Baxter. I grew up across the street from the Friends Center. I have been married for 20 years. My husband and I have a 19 year old son. I attend Oak Hill Community Church which is located in Sanktown. I enjoy playing online games, watching TV, and shopping. I'm thankful for God's presence in my life. I have a lot of health problems, but God is taking care of me. Working at the Center has been a blessing in my life. It helps out financially; but it also keeps me busy and gives me a purpose for my life.

My name is Alexis Sedlack. I have lived in Fairford my whole life. I have been married to my best friend for 8 years. My husband attended the MOWA Choctaw Friends Academy in elementary school. We have four children. We have a little girl who is 4 years old and 3 boys ages 6, 9, and 15. We attend Oak Hill Community Church in Sanktown. I enjoy watching TV, shopping, and spending time with my family and friends. God has blessed me and my family in so many great ways. He provides for all our needs. My family and I are healthy and happy thanks to God. I have been working at the Center for 1 ½ years. Being here has been a great experience for me. Serving at the Center is a way for me to help my community, and it has brought two great friends into my life – Jenny & Irene. I enjoy knowing that the work I do is a big help to so many different people.

My name is Irene Prindall. I grew up across the road from the Center. I attended school at the Center from 1985 and I graduated in 1992. I worked part-time in the mid-1990s. I started full time in 2000. The Center closed briefly in 2005 and reopened under NYCM in 2006. I began helping with the After-School Program in October of 2006 and now serve as a Co-Director at the Center. I have been married for 8 years. We have no kids but I was blessed to be the stepmother to my husband's 2 kids. I like watching TV, listening to music, and taking care of my cats. God has blessed me with a great job and a wonderful family. I attend Oak Hill Community Church with most of the community members of Sanktown. I really enjoy working at the Center because it has been a blessing in my life.
