FROM THE CAMPUS PASTOR...

"We are continuing to see God's blessings all over us here in Greensboro. Spiritually we have never been stronger and God continues to bring us individuals who challenge us. I have seen the students in Greensboro step up in a whole new way. They have been spending time reaching out to the community and pouring energy into investing in each other and our NCYM Young Adult events. God is raising up great disciples in our young adults...be in prayer!" - Sarah Vestal

THOUGHTS FROM A STUDENT...

"FCM—Greensboro has really grown through the past year. Activities we've participated in this semester include: the Passion conference in Atlanta, rock climbing, preparing and serving food to the homeless, the Young Adult Winter Retreat and several other events along with our weekly Wednesday night meetings. We have a very diverse group but we come together for the sake of worshiping Christ and serving through him. Our current focus is directed towards being what and where God wants us to be and right now that feels awesome; just to know that we're being molded and moved by Him feels like a step in the right direction. Overall God is doing great things on the campus of UNC Greensboro and you can expect to see His name lifted up by more and more students as long as Friends Campus Ministries resides there." - Abbie Inman, UNCG '12

FROM THE CAMPUS PASTOR...

"FCM has been such a wonderful experience for me. The passion and growth that I have seen in my students amazes me. I have also seen God move in ways beyond anything I could ever imagine. Our graduating students have gone out to serve the Lord in many ways. Some have gone to the mission fields, Quaker Lake, and to serve as a new campus pastor. God is so good and so faithful in our young adults. go pack!" - Stefanie Johnson

THOUGHTS FROM A STUDENT...

"When I think about FCM I think about a comfortable and open place not only to discuss God's word openly and freely, but a place to do so in a firm Quaker environment. FCM provides a network of friends that I am able to confide in and share my struggles while at the same time hearing their struggles and we are able to support one another to a degree that is rare to find anywhere else. I value this organization to the point that not only would I be missing out on such a wonderful ministry, but I can honestly say I would not be as strong in my faith without it!"

FROM THE CAMPUS PASTOR...

"FCM has taken off at Western Carolina and I am so blessed to be a part of it! I have had the chance to meet some amazing followers of Christ who hunger and thirst for God and His Word. We have been going through a series about God's ongoing will in our lives, and it's exciting to see the way God is constantly working in and through our group." - Lyndsey Wall

Thoughts FROM A Student...

"Well the FCM group at Western Carolina University is going great. Since the middle of January we have met every week for a weekly Bible study and dinner. Lyndsey is doing a great job leading the group and really helping us develop our faith. She asks some very thought provoking questions which really make us reflect on how we are living our lives, but it is definitely what we need to hear. The group took a skiing/snowboarding trip to Wolf Mountain in February. It was so much fun and everyone really enjoyed it. FCM at Western Carolina has truly been a great joy to start. The group has truly been a blessing to those who are a part of it and God is definitely doing some great work in the mountains." - Ethan King, Western '13

FROM THE CAMPUS PASTOR...

"FCM continues to blow my mind. Going from being a part of State's FCM to laying the foundation in the Queen City, God has shown me how MIGHTY He is. We might be relatively small but things are falling into place and the impact that we can and will have on Charlotte is going to be EPIC! I love the people and the community that we are building; it surely is a blessing! Jesus Party. Go pack!" - Thomas Wensil

Thoughts FROM A Student...

"I am so excited that FCM is starting up in Charlotte. I am looking forward to FCM being a place of fellowship and spiritual growth that most college students miss out on. I can't wait to see what the Lord has in store for us and the impact that we will have on the Charlotte community.
