Ministries for Children-

Ministry to youth and children is a vital and taxing endeavor. We ask that you take this time to pray for those in your Meeting who have answered the call to work with children. Pray that God will shine through them and be a light to these young ones.

Ministry and Counsel-

Ministry and Counsel appoints clerks and receives reports from the Quarterly and Monthly Meetings. It reports annually at Yearly Meeting on the work being done throughout NCYM in ministry. They also serve to address issues related to our corporate spiritual needs, including the recording of ministers.

Missions Committee-

Missions Committee serves to promote the spiritual values of involvement in mission work by planning and promoting Missionary Conferences, administering the Friends Mexico Missions, enlisting financial support from the monthly meetings, and promoting the call of Christ to “go into all the world and preach the gospel.”

MOWA Choctaw Friends Center-

Located in McIntosh, Alabama, MOWA serves the community through after-school care, rummage sales, food pantry, youth group, summer VBS & sports camp and overall support for its inhabitants. Friends in North Carolina have been working in MOWA since it was founded in 1984 by the Associated Committee of Friends on Indian Affairs. NCYM approved to assume ownership of the property and the call to ministry in the community in August of 2006.
